From the Fathers....Before the Passover.

Having observed up to that point the observances of the old Passover, he brought them to perfection, and he handed over the new sacraments to his disciples to be observed henceforth.... Our Lord is the counterpart of the paschal lamb. Five days before he entered upon his suffering, he came to the place of his passion to teach that he was the one Isaiah had predicted.

St Bede the Venerable (673-735)

When they Sacrificed the Passover Lamb.

Easter and Baptism. The Passover affords a more than usually solemn day for Baptism. For that is the day when in effect the Lord's passion, into which we are baptized, was completed.

St Tertullian of Carthage (155-250)

Please pray for those who are sick or housebound:

If you wish to add or remove any names on this list, please contact the Parish office.
