29th AUGUST 2010 - 22nd SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Confirmation Programme

This year we have decided to run a shorter but more intense programme in preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

We hope to begin with an inaugural meeting in January 2011 and continue on a weekly basis until the celebration of the Sacrament in April or May 2011.

Confirmation forms are available in the Church Vestibule (see Children's Bookcase).

St Gregory the Great Feast Day 3rd September

St Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome.

Ordained a priest, he became one of the Pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, and at the age of 50 was elected Pope by the clergy and people of Rome.

He was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery of St Andrew's in Rome. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, for strengthening respect for doctrine. He revised the Latin Chant which still bears his name, "Gregorian".

St Gregory lived in a time of perpetual strife with invading Lombards and difficult relations with the East. When Rome itself was under attack, he interviewed the Lombard king.

A historian has written: "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great." Called "the Great," St Gregory has been given a place with Sts Augustine, Ambrose and Jerome as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

From The Fathers...

Jesus Calls us to Be Humble, Modest and Praiseworthy

“When,’ he says, ‘a man more honorable than you comes, he that invited you and him will say, ‘Give this man place.’” Oh, what great shame is there in having to do this! It is like a theft, so to speak, and the restitution of the stolen goods. He must restore what he has seized because he had no right to take it. The modest and praiseworthy person, who without fear of blame might have claimed the dignity of sitting among the foremost, does not seek it. He yields to others what might be called his own, that he may not even seem to be overcome by empty pride. Such a one shall receive honor as his due. He says, ‘He shall hear him who invited him say’, ‘Come up here.’”...

If any one among you wants to be set above others, let him win it by the decree of heaven and be crowned by those honors that God bestows. Let him surpass the many by having the testimony of glorious virtues. The rule of virtue is a lowly mind that does not love boasting. It is humility. The blessed Paul also counted this worthy of all esteem. He writes to those who eagerly desire saintly pursuits, ‘Love humility.’”
