WED 13TH	OUR LADY OF FATIMA	9.45 am 10.00 am	Morning Prayer Helen O'Neil RIP	Love Of God Leaves Love Of The World Behind. Do you see how [Jesus] has hidden his manifestation in the commandments? Of all the commandments, therefore, the most comprehensive is to love God and our neighbour. The love is made firm through abstaining from material things and through stillness of thoughts. Knowing this, the Lord enjoys us "not to be anxious about tomorrow", and rightly so. For if someone has not freed himself from material things and from concern about them, how can he be free from evil thoughts? And if he is beset by evil thoughts, how can he see the reality of the sin concealed behind them? This sin wraps th soul in darkness and obscurity and increases its hold on us through our evil thoughts and actions. The devil initiates the whole process by testing a person with a provocation that the person is not compelled to accept. But the one urged on by self-indulgence and self-esteem begins to entertain this provocation with enjoyment. Even if their discrimination tells them to reject it, yet in practice they take pleasure in it and accept it. If someone has not this general process of sinning, when will he pray about it and be cleansed, how will he find purity of nature? And if he has not found this, how will he behold the inner dwelling place of Christ? For we are a dwelling place of God, according to the words of the prophet, evangelist and apostle.
