14TH JUNE 2026—ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST RICHARD OF CHICHESTER
(1197—1253)
Secondary Patron of the Diocese;
Patron of Sussex
Feast: 16th June

Richard Wych was born in Worcestershire, into a farming family. After the death of his parents and the poor administration of the family estate by guardians, Richard, by then an adult, restored the property to working order, through hard work and good management.

Under the influence of St Edmund of Canterbury, who was to become a life-long friend, Richard pursued work and academic studies in Oxford. He was drawn to the priesthood, after studying theology abroad. Richard returned to England and was eventually nominated bishop of Chichester.

Despite initial antagonism from the King, Henry III, Richard devoted his work to much-needed reforms and the care of the sick and poor in his diocese, travelling as far as Dover, preaching and calling people to a renewal of life.

Upon his death, he was immediately hailed a saint and was canonised within a decade, and his body placed in a new shrine behind the High Altar in his cathedral, where it remained until destroyed at the Reformation.

Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Thanks be to you, our Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which you have given us, for all the pains and insults which you have borne for us.
Most merciful Redeemer, friend and brother, may we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

ST ANTHONY OF PADUA
(1195—1231)
Feast: 13th June—Transferred to Monday, 15th

St. Anthony of Padua is one of the Catholic Church's most popular saints. Saint Anthony of Padua, patron saint of lost and stolen articles, was a powerful Franciscan preacher and teacher. He's typically portrayed holding the child Jesus—or a lily—or a book—or all three—in his arms. Many people give alms to St. Anthony Bread in thanksgiving to God for blessings received through the prayers of St. Anthony.

FROM THE FATHERS

SHEEP WITHOUT SHEPHERD

He Had Compassion For The People. No instigator had stirred up the crowds. They were not harassed and helpless because of some mishap or disturbance. So why is Jesus so moved with compassion for these people? Clearly the Lord has pity of these people held in the sway of an unclean spirit and burdened by the law, because no shepherd was about to restore to them the guardianship of the Holy Spirit. The fruit of this gift was indeed potentially abundant but not yet harvested by anyone. The bounty of the Spirit overwhelms the multitude of those who take hold of it. For no matter how much is gathered by everyone, it abounds in fruitfulness. And because it is good to have many people through whom he I served, he orders his disciples to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send forth as many labourers as possible into the harvest. He prays that God may bestow an abundance of reapers to take hold of what the gift of the Holy Spirit was preparing. Through prayer and exhortation God pours out the gift upon us.

Hilary of Poitiers (c. 315—367)

GIVE WITHOUT PAY

The Gift Of Power. All the power possessed by the Lord is bestowed upon the apostles! Those who were prefigured in the image and likeness of God in Adam have now received the perfect image and likeness of Christ. They have been given powers in no way different from those of the Lord. Those one earthbound now become heaven-centred. They will proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is at hand, that the image and likeness of God are now appropriated in the company of truth, so that all the holy ones who have been made heirs of heaven may reign with the Lord. Let them cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers and cast out devils. Whatever impairment Adam's body had incurred from being goaded on by Satan, let the apostles wipe away through their sharing in the Lord's power. And that they may fully obtain the prophecy in Genesis, they are ordered to give freely what they freely have received. Thus a gift freely bestowed should be freely dispensed.

Hilary of Poitiers (c. 315—367)
