7TH JUNE 2026—CORPUS CHRISTI

BUILDING FOR THE COMMON GOOD

"Building a city founded on the common good implies, first and foremost, building on a firm relationship with God. It means recognizing that the truth of his love calls us to life "in all its fullness" (Jn 10:10) and communion with him. Like Saint Augustine, we too can say, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you."

Pope Leo XIV, Magnifica Humanitas

"No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift."

St Thomas Aquinas (1225—1274)

SOLEMNITY OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

"The heart of God burns with compassion! On the solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Church presents us this mystery for our contemplation: the mystery of the heart of a God who feels compassion and who bestows all his love upon humanity."

Pope Benedict XVI

FROM THE FATHERS

THE LIVING BREAD FROM HEAVEN

Manna Still Rains Down From Heaven. You asked me why the Lord God does not now rain down manna as he did on our ancestors' people. If you reflect, you will realise that he does, even daily, rain down manna from heaven on his servants. In fact, a corporeal manna is found today in many places, but it is not now a matter of such great wonder, because what is perfect has come. This is the Bread from heaven, the Body from a virgin, of which the gospel sufficiently tells us. How much more excellent this is than what went before! Those who ate that manna, or bread, are dead, but he who eats this Bread will live forever ... Whoever experiences this downpour of divine Wisdom is delighted, and needing no other food, lives not on bread alone but on every word of God.

St Ambrose of Milan (c. 333—397)

TRUE FOOD AND DRINK

Real Satisfaction. Or think of it this way: Whereas people desire meat and drink to satisfy hunger and thirst, real satisfaction is produced only by that meat and drink that make the receivers of it immortal and incorruptible. He is talking here about the fellowship of the saints where there is peace and unity, full and perfect. Therefore ... our Lord has chosen for the types of his body and blood things that become one out of many. Bread is a quantity of grains united into one mass, wine a quantity of grapes squeezed together. Then he explains what it is to eat his body and drink his blood: "He that eats my flesh and drinks my blood dwells in me and I in him." So then to partake of that meat and that drink is to dwell in Christ and Christ in you.

Whoever does not dwell in Christ, and in whom Christ does not dwell, neither eats his flesh nor drinks his blood; rather, he eats and drinks the sacrament of its own damnation.

St Augustine of Hippo (354—430)
