BISHOP ALEX'S VISIT

11th August
10 o'clock Mass

ST BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX (1090-1153)
Feast Day: 20th August

He was born of a noble family. He joined, and subsequently expanded, a new monastery which sought a return to a primitive poverty and austerity of life. By the time of his death, the Cistercians had grown from one house to 343.

Please note that candidates must be Catholics who worship on a regular basis in this parish. The number of families we can accept in the programme is limited, and priority will be given to Leatherhead parishioners.

Families may enrol their children between Sunday 7th July and Monday 4th November, but we reserve the right to close applications sooner, if the upper limit number of candidates is reached before this date.

Bernard was a man of great holiness and wisdom, and although he was often in very poor health, he was active in many of the great public debates of the time. He strongly opposed the luxurious lives of some of the clergy, and fought against the persecution of the Jews. He was also a prolific writer, of an inspiring rather than technical kind.

'In the eternal Word of God we all came to be, and behold, we die. In your brief response we are to be remade in order to be recalled to life.'

From a homily of St Bernard on the Annunciation and Mary's fiat ('The Whole World Awaits Mary's Reply')

FROM THE FATHERS

True Food And Drink

Real Satisfaction. Or think of it this way: Whereas people desire meat and drink to satisfy hunger and thirst, real satisfaction is produced only by that meat and drink that make the receivers of it immortal and incorruptible. He's talking here about the fellowship of the saints where there is peace and unity, full and perfect. Therefore ... our Lord has chosen for the types of his body and blood things that become one out of many. Bread is a quantity of grains united into one mass, wine a quantity of grapes squeezed together. Then he explains what it is to eat his body and drink his blood: "He that eats my flesh and drinks my blood dwells in me and I in him." So then to partake of that meat and that drink is to dwell in Christ and Christ in you. Whoever does not dwell in Christ, and in whom Christ does not dwell, neither eats his flesh nor drinks his blood; rather, he eats and drinks the sacraments of it to his own damnation.

St Augustine (of Hippo 354-430)
Tractates On The Gospel Of John 26.17-18.
