FROM THE FATHERS

FAITH WITHOUT WORKS IS DEAD

If someone does not show by his deeds that he believes in God, his profession of faith is worthless. For it is not the one who just says that he is the Lord's who is a believer, but the one who loves the Lord so much that he is prepared to risk even death because of his faith in him.

Andreas (c. Seventh Century)

It is obvious that words alone are not going to help someone who is naked and hungry. Someone whose faith does not go beyond words is useless. Such faith is dead without works of Christian love which alone can bring it back to life.

St Bede the Venerable (c. 672/673-735)

I do not understand why the Lord said, 'If you want to enter into eternal life, keep my commandments', and then mention the commandments relating to good behaviour, if one is able to enter into eternal life without observing them.

St Augustine of Hippo (354-430)

Faith is shown by deeds like the features of the face in a mirror.

Symeon, the New Theologian (c. 949-1022)

Please pray for those who are sick or housebound
