23RD JUNE 2024 — TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Sara Zad will run the next First Holy Communion programme 2024/2025 for the last time. She has run the programme now for 5 years. We need someone to replace Sara; ideally by 2 or 3 people.

If the volunteers could work with Sara for this, her final programme, "to learn the ropes", that would be really marvellous. Please get in touch with the Presbytery if you would be willing to undertake this most important ministry, and chat to Sara about the task.

GENERAL ELECTION
Seeking the common good

The Bishops' Conference has produced a very helpful resource to assist us, to use the opportunity which the General Election provides, to seek answers from all candidates to key questions of concern.

FROM THE FATHERS

Wind And Sea Obey Him
Awakening The Christ Asleep In You.

When you have to listen to abuse, that means you are being buffeted by the wind. When you anger is roused, you are being tossed by the waves. So when the winds blow and the waves mount high, the boat is in danger, your heart is imperiled, your heart is taking a battering. On hearing yourself insulted, you long to retaliate; but the joy of revenge brings with it another kind of misfortune—shipwreck. Why is this? Because Christ is asleep in you. What do I mean? I mean you have forgotten his presence. Rouse him, then; remember him, let him keep watch within you, pay heed to him.... A temptation arises: it is the wind. It disturbs you: it is the surging of the sea. This is the moment to awaken Christ and let him remind you of those words: "Who can this be? Even the winds and the sea obey him."
