Application forms are available in the Vestibule and may be dropped in the parish office once completed, along with a photocopy of your child's Baptism Certificate.

Please note that candidates must be Catholics who worship on a regular basis in this parish. The number of families we can accept in the programme is limited, and priority will be given to Leatherhead parishioners.

FROM THE FATHERS
When He Had Given Thanks Miracle Not Evident While Happening.
Five loaves are then set before the multitude, and broken. While the apostles are dividing them, a succession of newly created portions passes — they cannot tell how — through their hands. The loaf which they are dividing does not grow smaller and yet their hands are continually full of the pieces. The speed of the process baffles the sight. You follow with the eye a hand full of portions, and in the meantime you see that the contents of the other hand are not diminished. And all the while the heap of pieces grows. The carvers are busy at their task, the eaters hard at work at theirs. The hungry are satisfied and the fragments fill twelve baskets. Neither sight nor any of the other senses can discover how such an amazing miracle happened. What did not exist was created; what we see passes our understanding. It only remains for us to believe that God can do all things.
St Hilary Poitiers (c. 310 - c.367)
On The Trinity 3.6.

One God and Father of All—Whether Father of all or some. He is God and Father of all by being the God but not the Father of some and both God and Father of others. It is as if, picking out ten men of whom five were someone's sons and five his slaves, one said, "this is the lord and father of all ten."
Origen (185-c.200-254), Commentary on the Epistle to the Ephesians
